ZUNI CHRISTIAN SCHOOL – ZUNI, NM

9-11

The clouds of New Mexico's late summer and early fall are spectacular. Massive brilliant dramatic clouds--changing moment by moment. The other day in the 1st and 2nd grade classroom, we painted clouds--a tricky business for little children since when 'painting clouds' one is actually not painting them at all, but painting the surrounding sky. The project brought to mind a fourth grader's query after I had commented on the beauty of the clouds. "Just what is a cloud anyway?" I gave the factual answer. Still, there's no accounting for the beauty without the sky.

Thinking about clouds and the beginning of the school year, it seems so important that the backdrop of Christian mission education be right and holy. The spiritual illumination of children depends on the Christian community that encircles them. God has brought 62 students to our school this year. We thrill with the drama of their ever-changing bodies, minds, and hearts. We are attentive to the unfolding beauty of their souls. As we begin the school year, please pray for the community of faith that enfolds our children. Though only a few of our 47 families are Christians, pray that each parent who names the name of Jesus will have a nurturing and disciplined Christian home and be a model for the non-Christian parents of our school.

Pray for the ZCMS staff. Our staff is a dedicated bunch. Relationships, built day by day, give them unique and repeated opportunities to be Christ to the children. Pray that they use every occasion to be God's voice and heart.

"Christian!" is sometimes used by non-believers as an epithet for the body of Christ here in Zuni. But, without doubt, our mission school depends heavily upon our church family for encouragement, counsel and prayer. Pray that the ministry bonds of Zuni Christian Reformed Church and Zuni Christian Mission School will work well this year. Finally, we acknowledge the great company of believers who financially support and faithfully pray for our school and church. This is you! It seems so important that you know how much you bless the children and their families through this calling. We pray that you will be deeply blessed through your giving and prayer.
