November 2011

Happy Thanksgiving!

Thank you for all the work you do to raise awareness for missions in your church. May this season truly be a time of remembering and praising God for His faithfulness!

Lord of the Harvest

Join Christian Reformed Home Missions and Christian Reformed World Mission in praying for more workers for the harvest. This year's Lord of the Harvest prayer campaign features four bookmarks, each with a week's worth of prayer requests for people, places, and ministries at home and abroad.

All CRCNA churches will receive an email request, enquiring about their bookmark needs and quantities. The bookmarks can be used in January or any other time of the year. A downloadable version of the bookmarks will be available at www.crcna.org/LordofHarvest on November 15, 2011.

Make Your Gift Count

Abuja, Lagos, and Zaria are three of Nigeria's largest cities. The flow of people into the cities over the last few years has created new opportunities for urban evangelism. The Christian Reformed Church of Nigeria (CRCN) has responded by sending a missionary to each city to share the Good News with people who've never heard or accepted it.

Join Christian Reformed World Missions in extending Christ's reign worldwide by giving to this project. One $30 donation supplements an evangelist's salary for one month. To learn about or give to other projects, view World Missions' Project Giving Guide at www.crwmm.org/projects.

Coming to Your Church . . .

Christian Reformed World Missions' annual fall Global Update DVD has been sent to your church office. Learn about ministry in Nigeria through the eyes of Amos Samba, a Nigerian studying to be an evangelist. This 3-minute video is perfect for an offertory video. To view the video, visit www.crwmm.org/globalupdate.

Our annual resource brochures accompanied the Global Update. To download a copy, visit www.crwmm.org/resources.
