

One Person at a Time

Transforming Lives in a Wide, Wide World

LEADER'S GUIDE

Level: Middle School – High School

Length: 30 minutes – 1 hour 30 minutes

Objectives

1. Come to see global missions in terms of personal relationships: Missionaries interact with people on a personal level; students interact with individuals in their own communities on a personal level.
2. Become aware of ministry in Haiti.
3. Be inspired and motivated to become engaged in global ministry, especially ministry in Haiti.

Needed

Many of the resources needed for this lesson can be downloaded or ordered from our website (see the Activity or Other Resources sections on this site). Resources are also available on the DVD, Plugged-in to Missions: A DVD Curriculum for World-Minded Christians.

1. DVD – Beyond the Mountains: Hope for Haiti
2. Plugged-in to Missions: A DVD Curriculum for World-Minded Christians (optional) – the resources needed for this lesson have been made available on our website
3. Printed copies of Creole for the Soul handout
4. Printed copies of Discussion Questions handout
5. Haitian food
6. Blow up globe, soft globe, or large rubber ball
7. Plates, spoons, napkins
8. Candies, pens, or magnets
9. Haiti bookmarks

Notes

1. A lot of information and a variety of activities are presented in the Lesson Notes. Choose those activities for which you have time and with which you are most comfortable.
2. Lesson Notes are provided. Feel free to express the lesson in your own words and make it your own.
3. Don't tell students ahead of time that you'll be focusing on Haiti. They get to guess.
