

A gift of hope

A gift of hope
is given in your honor.

To: _____

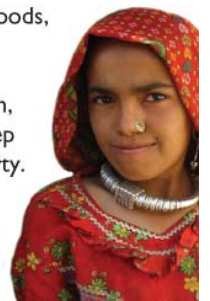

In honor of: _____

A gift of: _____

Has been made by: _____

Because a gift has been given in your honor, another person and family in another part of the world is celebrating with you. May this gift bring you joy as it brings hope to a family in need.

CRWRC is at work in nearly 30 countries around the world, providing access to basic necessities like clean water and nutritious foods, and training men and women in agriculture, income generation, and literacy. The end result: men, women, and children moving step by step along a path out of poverty.
