Help Earthquake Survivors In Haiti

"Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with God's people who are in need." Romans 12:12-13

The country of Haiti needs your prayers. After a horrific earthquake on January 12, millions of people are still homeless and tens of thousands have been confirmed dead. The Christian Reformed World Relief Committee is there to bring aid those in need, and share God's love when it most needs to be shared.

As a church, we've been blessed. All North American staff serving with Christian Reformed World Missions, CRWRC, and Back to God Ministries International survived the quake. In fact, because of the CRC's on-going presence in Haiti personnel were able to be on the scene soon after the earthquake struck.

Now it is time for us to share our blessings with others. CRWRC is distributing water, and food and providing temporary shelter to those most in need and will continue to walk alongside the communities as they rebuild in the months to come. To support this effort, please mark your gift "Haiti Earthquake 2010" or give to CRWRC's long-term community work in Haiti by marking your gift "Haiti Development."

Thanks to a generous grant from the Canadian government, gifts from Canadian individuals that are clearly marked for the earthquake response and are received before February 12 will be matched 1:1.
