

Let Justice Roll Down / With Justice, O Father

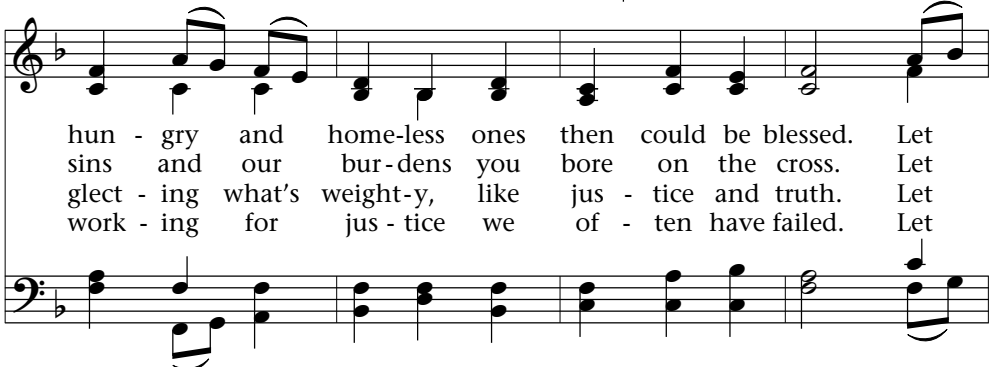

1 With jus - tice, O Fa - ther, you rule all the na - tions; you 2 With jus - tice, O Je - sus, you healed all the bro - ken, you 3 With jus - tice, O Spir - it, a - noint all your peo - ple by 4 With jus - tice, O God, you'll re - store your cre - a - tion; all stand with the stran - gers, the poor and op - pressed. You fed those who hun - gered and sought out the lost. You sow - ing the seeds that reap spir - it - ual fruit. We e - vil will fall and all good will pre - vail. But call us to join you in work - ing for jus - tice so reaped what we sowed when you suf - fered in - jus - tice; our quick - ly get caught up in triv - i - al mat - ters, ne - we must ac - know - ledge, as jus - ti - fied sin - ners, in hun - gry and home - less ones then could be blessed. Let sins and our bur - dens you bore on the cross. Let glect - ing what's weight - y, like jus - tice and truth. Let work - ing for jus - tice we of - ten have failed. Let

Let Justice Roll Down / With Justice, O Father

jus - tice roll down like a strong surg - ing riv - er, as jus - tice roll down like a strong surg - ing riv - er, as
jus - tice roll down like a strong surg - ing riv - er, as
jus - tice roll down like a strong surg - ing riv - er, as streams so re - fresh - ing, let right - eous - ness flow. If streams so re - fresh - ing, let right - eous - ness flow; through streams so re - fresh - ing, let right - eous - ness flow. And streams so re - fresh - ing, let right - eous - ness flow. It we sing your prais - es but fail to do jus - tice, we'd serv - ing the least of our bro - thers and sis - ters, it's ev - en when jus - tice seems slow in ap - pear - ing, please may be with sor - row we'll sow seeds of jus - tice, but on - ly be mock - ers who'd reap what we sow. then we can say it is you that we know. help us keep pray - ing, "In - jus - tice must go!" we will reap joy when the seeds fin - ally grow.