STRENGTHENING YOUR FAITH FORMATION CULTURE COHORT

Christian Reformed Church
Faith Formation Ministries

Faith Formation Ministries will:

1. Provide infrastructure, protocols, and resources for the project.
2. Provide a project coach to work with the congregation's project team and team leader(s), interacting at least once a month.
3. Provide four registrations for the Calvin Worship symposium and a $500 travel voucher for congregations whose registrants must fly (and who request this voucher).
4. Provide means for cohort congregations to interact with each other for mutual encouragement and creative sharing.
5. Provide communication resources for the congregation as they hold one offering for FFM.

The Participating Congregation will:

1. Secure the support of the church staff and the council for the project.
2. Appoint project (co)leaders and a project team to shepherd the project.
3. Meet (at least) monthly with the FFM coach.
4. Participate in conversations with other cohort congregations.
5. Contribute project documents to a shared Google Doc: This would include ideas, strategies, support materials (and other supplementary materials) for those strategies and plans.
6. Participate in and contribute to closed cohort Facebook page.
7. Register at least two persons for the Calvin Worship symposium (no maximum; four free registrations are provided; congregations are responsible for covering accommodation and meals).
8. Contribute approximately $1,000 to FFM (through one offering, or whatever means the congregation chooses). This amount can be adjusted up or down in conversation with the FFM coach.
