August is Make a Will Month!

Your will is more than a legal document. It's a reflection of your faith and values and an opportunity to determine the next stewards of your God-given resources.

By including gifts to your church, Resonate, Reframe or Thrive in your will, you model a legacy of hope and generosity. You also ensure your God-given blessings continue to make an impact well beyond your lifetime.

Here are a couple of ways that you can give to CRC Ministries in your will:

Direct Gifts: Designate a specific amount or percentage of your estate directly in your will. We have official language that you can share with your lawyer at www.crcna.org/heritagefund

Beneficiary Designations: Name your church as a charitable beneficiary of your retirement accounts, life insurance, or other assets.

This approach often reduces the tax burden on your estate, thereby protecting your loved ones and allowing more of your resources to be used for God's purposes.

What's the best option for you? It depends on your goals and circumstances. Regardless of the method you choose, your gift will leave a lasting impact, extending your influence beyond your lifetime.
