

PASTORAL APPROACHES: THE CHURCH AND SAME-SEX ATTRACTION

Thursday, June 11, 2015

9.00am – 4.00pm

Rexdale Alliance Church (2459 Islington Ave)
Toronto, ON

This seminar is aimed at equipping pastors, ministry leaders, friends and caregivers to walk with those who are experiencing unwanted same-sex attraction and desire to follow Christ in wholeness and integrity.

Key Topics

- Exploring God's design for sexuality
- Investigating biblical perspectives
- Shifts in the cultural landscape
- Understanding sexual identity and scripts
- The Church's call to be a healing community

Presenters

Toni Dolfo-Smith, Executive Director, Journey Canada

Toni, since 1991, has been involved in setting up and supporting healing ministries in Canada and around the world, including Hong Kong, Latvia, Turkey, South Africa and the Philippines. He is also a freelance artist in Vancouver.

Mardi Dolfo-Smith, Discipleship Pastor, North Shore Alliance Church

Mardi has been ministering to those struggling with sexual and relational brokenness since 1991. She graduated from Regent College (MA Old Testament) and UBC (BSc Microbiology). Mardi is married to Toni and they are parents of four young adults.

Daniel Komori, Associate Executive Director, Journey Canada

Daniel has a passion to help men through issues of sexual addiction, particularly those in vocational ministry. He is involved in leadership development across Canada. Daniel graduated from Regent College (MDiv).

Matthew Martin, Youth Ministries Coordinator, Journey Canada

Matthew has been involved in youth and young adult ministry in the US, Argentina and Canada for over 10 years. He joined the Journey Canada staff in 2009. Matthew graduated from Regent College (MDiv).

Journey
CANADA

Registration Info

Cost (includes lunch):
$60 early bird | $70 after June 1

REGISTER at www.journeycanada.org

For more info: ontario@journeycanada.org | 403.474.2594