

Building a Social Movement to End Child Sexual Abuse: The Role of Faith Communities

Linda Crockett

Founder and Director of Education and Consultation

scclanc.org/clergy-congregation-care/safechurch/

Samaritan SafeChurch represents what is a growing, vibrant, ecumenical stream of Christians who are stepping up to protect children from sexual harm by shifting culture in their congregations so that all adults become educated about child sexual abuse and how to prevent it – not only in their churches but in the community.

The Chapel at Calvin College
Saturday, Nov. 5 2016; 8:30-10:30 am 1835 Knollcrest Circle SE, Grand Rapids, MI

Free and Open to the Public

Sponsored by CRC Safe Church Ministry

Listen, learn, and consider how the Church can begin to make a positive difference

www.crcna.org/safechurch